

Japan-ASEAN online program toward SDGs

Intercultural Online Workshop

The Nexus Analysis of Sustainability Issues

December
8–11, 2025

16:45–18:45 JST

In this workshop, students will experience the nexus analysis of sustainability issues and learn the importance of comprehensive approaches to SDGs.

Objectives

Sustainability challenges are complex and interconnected, often requiring integrated solutions. In this workshop, participants will use nexus analysis to explore links between sectors like food, water, energy, and ecosystems. Participants will learn cross-sector collaboration and systems thinking by exploring trade-offs and synergies.

Schedule

- 🕒 Day 1: Ice-breaking activity, Cross-cultural exchange activity
- 🕒 Day 2: Individual work, Group work
- 🕒 Day 3: Group work, Creating a nexus proposal
- 🕒 Day 4: Presentation

Course content

Number of participants: about 50
(30-40 from AUN Core Member Universities and 10-20 from SixERS)
Language: English
Course fee: Free

Application

Application Deadline: November 14th (Fri.)

Registration Form: <https://forms.office.com/r/nNa9SADtkX>

Organizers: Niigata University, Okayama University, SUN/SixERS, and AUN

Contact: intl@adm.niigata-u.ac.jp

Office of Student Mobility, Niigata University

ASEAN
University
Network